In 1950 Father Mario Fabbri took a 9th grade boy to a bed in the rectory of St. John Gaulbert parish in Johnstown, Pennsylvania. Fabbri start to pet the boy and tell him he loved him. Fabbri then anally raped the boy. Fabbri ingratiated himself to the boy's well-respected family and lavished gifts on his victim to maintain contact with his victim. However, the victim began to suffer from the trauma of his assault. As his grades fell he became more distanced from his parents. Fabbri took advantage of the fractured bond and told his parents to allow him to spend more time with the boy. Fabbri obtained the parents' permission to take the boy on a trip to Canada. He raped the boy in New York, Quebec and Montreal.

In 1999 the victim, now in his 70's, contacted the Diocese. The victim stated he gave up his Catholic faith and that the assaults had a profound impact on his life. After years of therapy the victim wanted someone to know that he believed the Diocese knew at the time. Fabbri's sexual abuse of the boy continued until his transfer and the victim was concerned there were additional victims of Mario Fabbri. As Father Fabbri abused the victim he stated "you are not as cooperative as the others." Fabbri's last known location was somewhere in Italy. He is presumed dead.
